 - b) TASC (high school equivalency)
 - c) special education with an IEP
 - d) other alternative programs of at least one year such as Westside Academy or similar district-based programs

Note: New Visions alone is NOT an eligible program; a 504 alone is NOT an eligible program.
- Student will successfully complete high school in the current school year
- Student will continue education or career training after high school

Eligible Expenses for Post-Secondary Education, Career Training and Apprenticeships

- Tuition and fees
- Room and board
- Books, supplies, equipment, tools, specialized services
- Expenses not mentioned above require approval in advance of reimbursement

Criteria Used to Choose Recipients

Make All the Difference Scholarships and Awards recognize students who:

- Can show that their eligible programs have made a significant difference in their lives and prepared them for their future
- Have experiences and educational outcomes that are indicators of preparedness for future success
- Understand what they need to succeed; act on that self-awareness to develop strategies, and to find and use resources, in high school and in planning for their future
- Have post-high school goals, and a plan for reaching those goals
- Have positive character traits

Tip: Be aware that anytime you apply for something, the people who review your application may try to view your social media accounts.

Timeline

- Applications must be received no later than Wednesday, February 26, 2020.
- Scholarship/Award recipients will be notified no later than May 20, 2020.

DIRECTIONS: How to apply

- Go to www.MakeAlltheDifference.org for the Application Form.
- Read this Information and Directions section in its entirety before beginning your application.
- Save this Information and Directions section. (Do not submit it with your application.)
- Any accommodations you receive in your education may be used in applying for a scholarship or award.
- Questions? Contact Sandy Giles (sgiles@monroe2boces.org) or Tim Dobberty (tdobberty@monroe2boces.org)
- Carefully compile the THREE parts of your application.

Part 1: The Application Form – available at www.MakeAlltheDifference.org

- Fill out the Application Form electronically, then print it. HANDWRITTEN APPLICATIONS CANNOT BE ACCEPTED.
- Answer all questions. Pay attention to spelling and grammar.
- Present as much specific information and detail as you can to support your qualifications.
- If you need more space for any of your responses, you may type a separate piece of paper. Be sure your name is on each additional page.
- After you print your completed Application Form, carefully proofread it.
- Sign your printed Application Form.
- If you are under 18 years of age, make sure your parent/guardian also signs the Application Form.

Part 2: Two letters of support

- Submit two letters of support from adults, including but not limited to counselors, employers, coaches, teachers or aides, clergy, club advisors, etc.
- Choose people who know you best, who can add to what you have told us about yourself, and who can provide details and examples in doing so.
- The letters should address at least one of the criteria listed in the Information page.
- The most effective letters make statements that are uniquely about you, and are composed specifically for this scholarship/award application.
- You can make copies of this page to give to the two letter writers, or you can tell your letter writers that they can go to www.MakeAllTheDifference.org to see the application materials.

Part 3: Your high school transcript

- Ask your school counselor to provide the most recent transcript of your course work.

- Mail or deliver the THREE parts of your application together (the Application Form, two letters of support and your current high school transcript) on or before Wednesday, February 26, 2020 to:
